

Byfield Walks – “The Muddy Track, and back – via The Pool”...

From an old railway bridge

From the old railway embankment, looking north

The other railway bridge parapet (south side)

The other side of the old railway bridge, looking southeast

Leave the old railway and strike-out round the northern edge of this field for 700 metres, then take care not to miss the gap in the hedge that leads to Byfield Pool...

The old railway track

Looking back southeast towards the old railway track

North →

Path to Byfield Pool

North ↑

Looking west - back towards Res.

At the east end of this path turn right

Looking north, after you've turned right

Turning around and looking the other way

Looking east, up the hill towards Byfield

Looking east, uphill

Looking back west from up the hill...
The "Pool" is somewhere behind those trees

Looking back west from further across the hill,
The Pool (& Res.) are behind the clump of trees

Ancient and modern - windmills and mangers

Now through first of three gates. Notice says: "Sheep & lambs, please keep dogs on lead"

↑
Gate

Looking back west across the fallow field

Looking east to the next gate. Go Through the gate...

Looking south east towards Byfield

Further-on, looking back.
Diagonal to the NW

Looking back east towards The Twistle

Looking west across the potato patch

Kiss-gate out onto The Twistle, opposite Number 31

On The Twistle, looking back along the footpath to Westhorpe Lane

Looking back west, towards The Twistle

Footpath by 7 Westhorpe Lane, looking west

Looking north into Westhorpe Lane from Bell Lane

Thanks to Google Earth for the map...